Get in Touch

for internationals

Indigo-Wereld developed the program ‘Get in Touch with people & places in Eindhoven’, meant for spouses of international knowledge workers.

Perspectives

Get in Touch helps international spouses to find an anchoring in the new residence. Along with their partners, they face the challenge to create a stable home to live up to the investment of their mission.

‘HR management has not only to do with the job and the workload, but should also support the spouses. The program helps them to make friends and to have an idea of what Eindhoven has to offer.’

Get in Touch offers a variety of activities:

- Weekly trips, tours or network meetings, educationally, culturally and socially to get in touch with people & places and start building a new personal network.

- Short track projects next to the weekly meetings, such as: dance and music groups, film project, group talks.

- Coaching & counseling around ‘the challenges of living abroad’ and (external) support when seeking for (un)paid jobs, studies or other meaningful activities.

In consultation a suitable package will be offered, tailor made to your needs.

Indigo-Wereld connects quite different worlds. Each person has his own life story, her own vision, a private history. By sharing narratives, you don’t just share knowledge, but equally important emotions. Working, worrying, laughing, living together.. for Indigo-Wereld, these are all means to connect in freedom and all kinds of diversity, with your inner self and with each other. Connected, we all gain strength!
